Meistersinger Vocal Competition

A featured event of AIMS IN GRAZ, the Meistersinger Vocal Competition is open to all full-time AIMS singers. The Preliminary judging is on a Saturday (see below for date); a maximum of 24 Semi-Finalists will be named. Semi-final judging is on Sunday; eight Finalists and two Alternates will be named. The eight Finalists will sing before a panel of judges at the Meistersinger Vocal Competition Concert, the last concert of AIMS IN GRAZ. The two alternates also will perform at the concert.

First, Second, Third and Fourth Place prizes and four Honorable Mention awards are given. Cash awards for finalists and alternates total about $4500. The audience also votes for its choice and a valuable gold "Wiener Philharmoniker" coin is presented to the "Audience Favorite".

COMPETITION RULES

1. Entry forms will be distributed in Graz.
2. Only full-time AIMS IN GRAZ participants with all AIMS fees paid in full are eligible.
3. The deadline for submitting the official application form and paying the entry fee is 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday before the Preliminary Judging on Saturday.
4. Three arias must be listed on the entry form. Only these arias can be sung by the participant during the competition.
5. The application form must have the approval signatures of the singer's assigned AIMS Voice Teacher and Vocal Coach.

REPERTOIRE There is no limitation on material to be presented at the Preliminary Judging and Semi-Finals, but it should be material with orchestration in the AIMS Orchestra Library. See www.aimsgraz.com/orchmusic and select "Aria List". After the Finalists are announced, the competition arias to be performed will be chosen from the extensive AIMS Orchestra Library.

ENTRY FEE The entry fee is US $45 payable in dollars or Euros. Singers should present the official Entry Form and fee to the Bursar between 5 and 6 p.m. on Tuesday before the Preliminary judging on Saturday.

JUDGING

1. Preliminary judges TBA.
2. Semi-Final judges TBA.
3. A panel of up to five judges will be named for the Finals; none will have judged an earlier round of the competition.
